Late Deadline: August 22, 2008

Recognition Ceremony: November 6, 2008, New York City

Seeking Young PR Stars FOR THE INDUSTRY HOT LIST

It's time to enter your favorite young PR professionals in PR News' Annual 15 to Watch competition. This program, honoring 15 budding PR leaders and creative practitioners, is open to PR professionals age 30 and under. Nominees must be a practicing communications professional at any of the following: a corporation, PR firm, nonprofit/association, educational institution, government organization or industry supplier. Nominees may reside anywhere in the world.

How to Enter

You can nominate yourself or your colleagues. Your nomination/s need to be postmarked by August 15 including the following. Include the Entry Form on back, plus this information:

- 1. The nominee's name
- 2. The nominee's position (title and organization)
- 3. The nominee's age (and birth date if possible)
- 4. Your professional relationship to the nominee*
 *you can self-nominate
- A brief synopsis on why this young PR pro should be named to our list
- 6. At least three concrete examples of his or her stellar achievements over the past year (specific campaigns, events, programs—proof that this person shines!)
- 7. A sample of his or her work and/or supporting materials.
- 8. Nominee's contact information (full name, title, organization, email and phone)
- Your name and contact information so that we may follow up with questions during judging

Deadline for submissions is August 15, 2003 (postmarked)

Winners will be named and profiled in a fall 2008 issue of PR News and recognized at PR News' PR People Awards luncheon on November 6, 2008.
