“The Education A-List is the only editorial roster of its kind, dedicated to the most innovative higher learning institutions for PR & communications,” says Kaylee Hultgren, Content Director for PRNEWS. “This year’s esteemed list supports our view that PR and communications programs provide additional, high-quality training for professionals in the industry. Moreover, their continued evolution—through both a content and technological perspective—keeps pace with the real-world companies, organizations and new trends and specialties that are driving the industry forward.”
